Stative and Dynamic

Verbs
- Stative (expressing a state or condition, and cannot be used with the progressive aspect)
- Dynamic (implies action or change related to events, happenings, and processes)

Nouns
- Stative
  - Mental or conceptual phenomena (idea, vision)
  - concrete nouns (chair)
  - states (hope)
  - qualities (happiness)

  } Stable
- Dynamic
  - Events (arrival)
  - Action (Walking)

  } can be used with progressive aspect with a temporary dynamic meaning

*He is being a fool. He is being a nuisance.

Adjective
- Stative (descriptive)
  - Physical description (thick)
  - quantity (several)
  - value (beautiful)
  - Age (old)
  - Colour (purple)

  } permanent
- Dynamic (behavior) Temporary (can be used with the progressive aspect)

He is being naughty. He is being foolish.

Adverb
- Stative
  - Place
  - Time
- Dynamic: Process: *He searched the room carefully.