

New
Headway

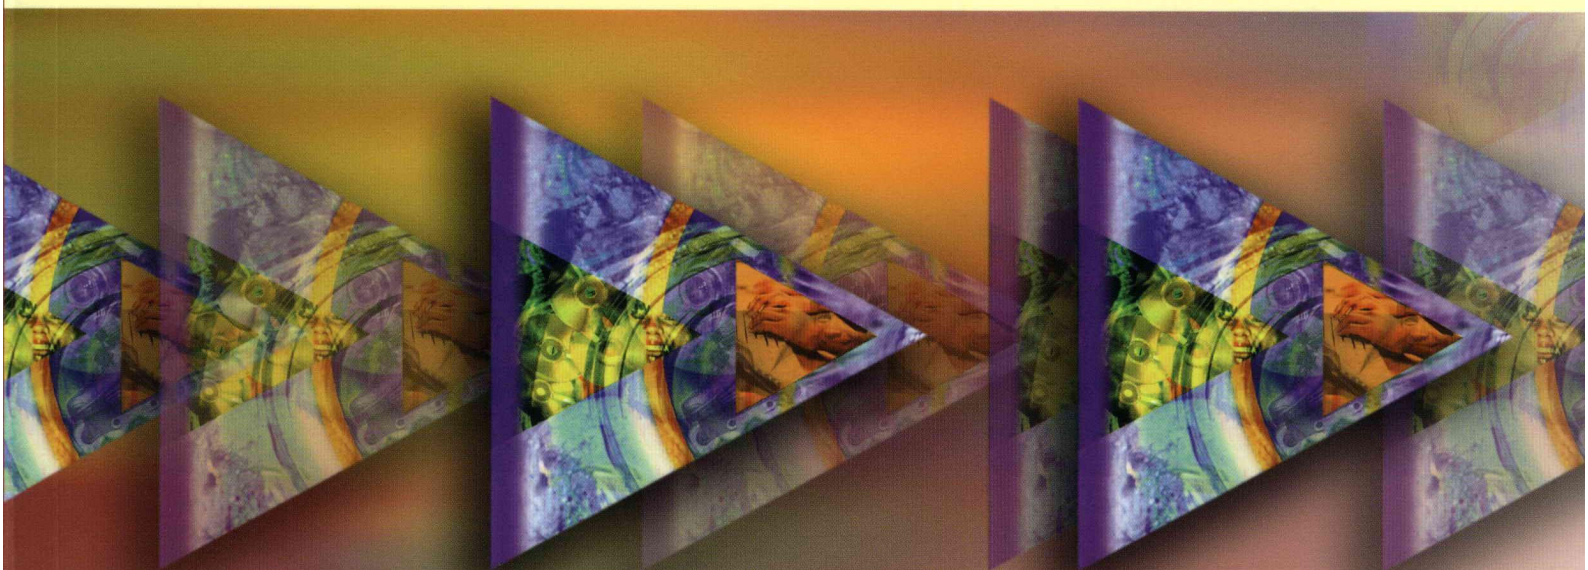

Academic Skills

Reading, Writing, and Study Skills

LEVEL 1 Student's Book

Richard Harrison

Series Editors: Liz and John Soars

OXFORD

CONTENTS

1 Student life

READING How do you read? p4–5
Ways of reading: reading methods

WRITING Describing people p6–7
Punctuation (1): capital letters, full stops, and question marks
Linking ideas (1): and and but to join sentences
Rules: Present Simple
Checking your writing: errors in spelling, capital letters, punctuation, and grammar
Writing about people

2 Daily routines

READING Work and stress p10–11
Predicting content (1): using pictures in a text
Skimming: getting the general idea

WRITING Routines and procedures p12–13
Handwriting: making handwritten work clear and easy to read
Paragraphs: block and indented styles
Linking ideas (2): sequencing words: first, after, then, finally ...
Writing about routine and procedure

3 People and the environment

READING Weather p16–17
Scanning – using headings
Meaning from context: guessing the meaning of new words

WRITING Describing our lives p18–19
Punctuation (2): apostrophes
Rules: Talking about frequency
How to be a good student: study tips
Writing about study habits

4 Architecture

READING Famous buildings p22–23
Making notes (1): notes from study (intensive) reading, labelling diagrams
RESEARCH Finding information (2) p23
Focusing your search: asking yourself questions

WRITING Describing buildings p24–25
Linking ideas (3): expressing reason – because
Linking ideas (4): expressing result – so
Words and phrases (1): language to describe buildings
Writing about a building

5 Education

READING Universities p28–29
Predicting content (2): using the title and the first few sentences
Linking ideas (5): expressing contrast – however

WRITING Formal letters and emails p30–31
Greetings and endings: Dear, Yours ...
Words and phrases (2): language for letters and emails
Writing a letter or email

6 Technology

READING Inventions p34–35
Getting information from websites: skimming and scanning to find useful information
Using visuals in a website: getting extra information from diagrams and pictures

WRITING Describing things p36–37
Writing definitions: using which or that to describe things
Giving examples: supporting definitions with examples
Writing a description of a device

7 Food, drink, and culture

READING Food from other countries p40–41
Topic sentences: using a topic sentence to help understanding
Writer's opinion: identifying the writer's opinion

WRITING Describing food and drink p42–43
Punctuation (2): commas
Linking ideas (6): in addition, and and
Using pronouns: avoiding repetition
Writing about food and drink

8 Cities of the world

READING City life p46–47
Looking at data: tables, charts, and graphs
Getting facts from a text: using headings to help you find information

WRITING Comparing data p48
Rules: comparatives and superlatives
Linking ideas (7): using relative pronouns which and where
Writing about cities

9 Brain power

READING A healthy brain p52–53
In other words: using pronouns and synonyms to avoid repetition
Making notes (3): organizing notes

WRITING Notes and summaries p54–55
Common mistakes: typical grammar errors
Summaries: summarizing the main points of a text
Writing a summary

10 Staying alive

READING Dangerous diseases of our time p58–59
Using what you know: using your own knowledge to help you understand a text
Using reference to understand a text: (relative) pronouns, possessive adjectives, and adverbs
Focusing on statistics: using text and visuals to understand statistics.

WRITING Describing statistics p60–61
Linking ideas (8), (9), (10): on the other hand, as a result, also
Words and phrases (3): language to describe tables, charts, and graphs
Writing about statistics